

Unattainable

Panica

Only when the goal is unattainable
Do I start to feel like I'm losing myself And this deep secret that hasn't come out yet is burried, down deep with the restI can't coarse you into this one Jealousy lay all your spells to bed
I'll choose long-loved insteadIf only songs we're sung
 To guide the doubtfull ones Beyond the rough where not as much is good enough Oh if you find yourself for once a lonely one I'll be waiting here with open armsI can't coarse you into this one
 Jealousy lay all your spells to bed
 I'll choose long-loved instead
