

Getting Better

Darren Styles

Getting better, getting better... (Repeated) Sometimes I feel like I can fly

You take my hand and I electrify

Your smile is driving me insane

You are my sun, my moon, my rain Cause makes me feel like loving you

And I know, it keeps on getting better

That the skies have turned to blue

Yes I know, it keeps on getting better Makes me feel like loving you

And I know, it keeps on getting better

Now the skies have turned to blue

Yes I know, it keeps on getting better Getting better, getting better... (Repeated) Sometimes I feel like I can fly

You take my hand and I electrify

Your smile is driving me insane

You are my sun, my moon, my rain Cause makes me feel like loving you

And I know, it keeps on getting better

now the skies have turned to blue

Yes I know, it keeps on getting better Getting better, getting better... (Repeated) Makes me feel like loving you

And I know, it keeps on getting better

That the skies have turned to blue

Yes I know, it keeps on getting better
