Loving You

Atomic Kitten

I used to run, I used to hide from love
But now I'm satisfied
'Cause you show me that love could be
So good, so real and, oh, so right
So many things I used to let get in my way
Now I open up my arms and say
Hey, loving you, all I wanna do
For the rest of my life, this feels so right
I'm loving you, all I wanna do
For the rest of my days, I like the way I'm loving you
An open book, an open door
That's what you are and I thank you for
The heart you give that's sensitive
You're all I needed, you're so much more
I used to fill each hour of each single day
Now I slow it down enough to say
Hey, I'm loving you, all I wanna do
For the rest of my life, this feels so right
I'm loving you, all I wanna do
For the rest of my days, I like the way I'm loving you
(I'm loving you, don't you know, don't you know?)
Every day
(Every day)
Every night
(Every night)
Holding me closer
(Closer)
Feelin' so right
I'm loving you
I'm loving you, all I wanna do
For the rest of my life, this feels so right
I'm loving you, all I wanna do
For the rest of my days, I like the way
I'm loving you, all I wanna do
For the rest of my life, this feels so right
I'm loving you, all I wanna do
For the rest of my days, I like the way I'm loving you
I'm loving you
(You)

I like the way I'm loving you
You, yeah
