

Don't Dwell

Tracy Chapman

Don't dwell on the past
Of that was lost and didn't last
That summer bloom is fading fast
But I'm falling for you
Don't dwell on the pain
The tears you've cried and autumn rain
That fair weather's here and come again
But I'm waiting for you
Don't dwell on the loss

Fools that would steal, break and toss
That winter's heart will spurn and double cross
But I'm yearning for you
Don't dwell on the time
Seasons change and so does the clime
That old flame has cooled but I
But I'm burning for you
Yes I am burning for you
Oh I am burning for you
