Beatbox

Î•Î¹Ïƒ Î²Î¿Î»Î-Î±Ï‚

For every lovers kiss
For every child that laughs
And every moment missed
For every dream I've cast
And every flower that blooms
It keeps reminding me
That your heart is just a beatbox
For the song of your life
And for every time I fell
Every time you picked me up
And when I wasn't well
You gave me the healing cup
Just like a magic spell
It captivates my soul
That your heart is just a beatbox
For the song of your life
Cos it aint wrong it aint right
It's in your darkest hour
It's in your brightest light
Its in the wind its on the tide
And there's a choir of angels singing
Somewhere out of sight.
So for every fathers kiss
For every bridge we build

And every mother's wish
For all the blood we've spilled
And every clock that chimes
It constantly reminds
That your heart is just a beatbox
For the song of your life
Cos it aint wrong it aint right
It's in your darkest hour
It's in your brightest light
Its in the wind its on the tide
And there's a choir of angels singing
Somewhere out of sight.
So for every star that shines
For every journey made

And every song that rhymes
On every peace crusade
And every clock that chimes
It constantly reminds..
That your heart is just a beatbox
For the song of your life
Ye your heart is just a beatbox
