

Who Cares?

Extreme

Tell me Jesus, are you angry?
One more sheep has just gone astray
A hardening of hearts turning to stone
Wandering off so far from home So many children losing time
Walk in darkness looking for a sign
Chasing their rainbows, future looks so bright
Slowly we're losing sight of the light Who cares, who cares, who cares?
Tell me who cares, who cares? Who cares, who cares, who cares?
Tell me who cares, who cares? All alone out in the cold
Can't look back, am I growing old?
I chose a path and is this my fate?
Am I finding out the truth too late? Who cares, who cares, who cares?
Tell me who cares, who cares? Who cares, who cares, who cares?
Tell me who cares, who cares? Here I am, a naked man
Nothing to hide with empty hands
Remember me, well I am the one
Who lost his way your prodigal son? Can anybody, anybody?
Anybody, any luck
Anybody, any luck Am I ever gonna change?
Will I always stay the same?
I say one thing an' I do the other
Same old song goes on forever
Ever gonna change
I just take it dead, I know
My will is weak but my bless is strong
Loose I seem to that yearn of gold
