Wonderful

Phil Wickham

I can see You in the light of a new dawn
I can hear You in the words of a love song
I know it in my heart
I know it in my soulI can feel You in the breath of a newborn
I can feel You in the wind and the rainstorm
I know it in my heart
I know it in my soulOh, You are wonderful
And what else can my soul sing
All Your hands have made
Everything You've done
Oh, my God, You're wonderfulYou were there when the heavens were fashioned
You spoke a word and You set it all in motion
I know it in my heart
I know it in my soulOh, You are wonderful
And what else can my soul sing
All Your hands have made
Everything You've done
Oh, my God, You're wonderfulIn the brand new life of a brilliant spring
The promises of a wedding ring
I see Your love
I see Your heart
Oh, how wonderful You areIn a mother's touch, a father's cry
A Friend who freely gives His life
I see Your love
I see Your heart
Oh, my God, how wonderful You areOh, You're wonderful
And what else can my soul sing
All Your hands have made
Everything You've done
Oh, my God, You're wonderfulYou're wonderful
(Oh, You are wonderful
Oh, my God, You're wonderful)
