

The Puppet

Gatopaint

It's true, the real story.
Now everyone knows who I am Don't stop the music or you'll see what I can do with your soul I didn't come here to tease you I didn't come here to hear you cry
I need somebody to load up
The box that keeps me blind I'm the guilty one behind Those children look happy inside
let me set your place
around the others
You'll be alright Pretty easy to think you could survive these five nights the music has stopped so here I come to end your life I didn't come here to tease you I didn't come here to hear you praying to gods but I need somebody to load
The box that keeps me blind I'm the guilty one behind
Those children look happy inside
let me set your place
around the others
You'll be alright The sounds close to the hall It's me, waiting for the perfect moment to make you die, so goodbye! Oh, It's over now It's all over now I'm the guilty one behind Those children look happy inside
let me set your place
around the others
You'll be alright The sounds close to the hall
make you die, so goodbye! (Ha-ha-ha)
(ARGH!!!)
