Losers Club

Lower Class Brats

I remember high school
man was it a bore i remember being shut out for the clothes i couldnt afford and i recall being accused of things id never do and i recall the photographs that i never took of youSo... heres to the losers heres to me and you heres the loers whatare you gonna doI remember being shunned and being pushed aside singled out against the wall and stripped of any pride and i recall running away from assholes just like you now it seems youre the only fucks I ever run into
