

Disposable Sunshine

Loser

Goodbye, listen blue sky
Innocence is gone
Midnight, washes over
Everything Ive knowStrange daze coming over me now
I thought that i was everything
Strange thoughts penetrate my halo
Im listening to what they sayStaring in the face of a broken dream
I feel a chill rushing down my spine
Im closer to the edge than i've ever been
And I want to see the other side.Goodbye, listen blue sky
Innocence is gone
Midnight, washes over
Everything Ive knowStrange daze coming over me now
I thought that i was everything
Strange thoughts penetrate my halo
I sacrifice my purityStaring in the face of a broken dream
I feel a chill rushing down my spine
Im closer to the edge than i've ever been
And I want to see the other side.Goodbye, listen blue sky
Innocence is gone
Midnight, washes over
Everything Ive knowDisposable sunshineGoodbye, listen blue sky
Innocence is gone
Midnight, washes over
Everything Ive knowDisposable sunshineDisposable sunshineGoodbye, listen blue sky
Innocence is gone
Midnight, washes over
Everything Ive knowDisposable sunshine
