

Mighty Good Leader

Beck

One hundred and twenty-three bpm
Flooded by an ocean of some mixed emotions
They got you down again
Pride and passion Physical attraction
Whatever thing you're in
These temptations causing you frustrations
What you need is a friend
Someone who loves you, who is above you
Take away all your sin
Help is on the way, yeah, yeah, yeah
Help is on the way
A mighty good leader is on the way
He's the only one gonna come to save the day
It's all right, yeah, uh-huh, it's ok
'Cause a mighty good leader is on the way
Now this someone knows where you come from Doesn't care where you've been
He can put back pieces that you lack
Make you whole again
Help is on the way, yeah, yeah, yeah
Help is on the way
A mighty good leader is on the way
He's the only one gonna come to save the day
It's all right, yeah, uh-huh, it's ok
'Cause a mighty good leader is on the way
Help is on the way, help is on the way
A mighty good leader is on the way
He's the only one gonna come to save the day
It's all right, yeah, uh-huh, it's ok
'Cause a mighty good leader, one, two, three, four
A mighty good leader is on the way
He's the only one gonna come to save the day
It's all right, yeah, uh-huh, it's ok
'Cause a mighty good leader is on the way, it's ok
