

Heaven and Earth

Hillsong Worship

Close my eyes, let the static go away
Shine Your light as the dawn begins to fade
Am I living with my heart broken and battered Drowning out the sound of my own aching soul
I'm just trying to find a home

Between heaven and earth
Oh, You're all I need, You're all I need
Between heaven and earth
You're the love in between, the love in between
Between heaven, heaven and earth

Am I here, just a drifter on my own
Hanging out on a world that's not my home
'Cause if I'm left alone to my own devices
I'm plotting out the end with all my vices
Please come and rescue me

Between heaven and earth
Oh, You're all I need, You're all I need
Between heaven and earth
You're the love in between, the love in between
Between heaven and earth
Oh, You're all I need, You're all I need
Between heaven and earth
You're the love in between, the love in between

When You look down, show me what You see
More than good intentions and failing dreams
A billion lives all worlds apart
A billion voices crying out
They're reaching out for the light of day
But there's only one way, there's only one way
There's only one way

Between heaven and earth
Oh, You're all I need, You're all I need
Between heaven and earth
You're the love in between, the love in between
Between heaven and earth

Oh, You're all I need, You're all I need
Between heaven and earth
You're the love in between, the love in between
