

First Touch

Howard Goodall & Original London Bend it Like Beck

Team skills, ball skills
Life skills, all skills
Require that certain age-old knack
Of zoning in while stepping back
Curved shots, straight shots
Long shots, great shots
They're lost if you so much as blink
If brain and boots are out of sync
You've got to teach your head how not to think
Don't think, just do it
Tell yourself that there's nothing to it
Add a dash of trust and just jump in
Don't overplan it
There's no formula carved in granite
Will's all it will take to make it spin
Just try a little less hard
Apply a little more joy
Feel a little more a sun
Reveal a little bit more of you
Than you're used to showing
The you inside, wide-eyed, outgoing
The you worth knowing
So if you wanna bend that shot
Give it tenth of all you've got
And you'll be amazed by what just doing can do
Just give a little bit less
And live a little bit more
Go a little off-road
And show a little bit more of Jess
Than the frown she's wearing
The Jess who's fun, the one worth sharing
Who's different, daring
So the lesson for today
Is you need to kill the flaws
Feel your way
And the lesson truly learnt
Is a hurdle undermined, overturned
And you can clear those mental blocks
If you think outside the box

Then there's a hope of a chance
You might be rewarded by the sight
Of a miracle in flight
So if something just feels right

Right

Right

Right

Right

Everything I said was true

All you need to do is do it
