Love Is My Witness

Amanda Marshall

I've been thinking about us
I've been turning it round and round
Even buried my head in the sand of the Holy Land
That claims my name
And I'm not a liar
When I say that I love you
I just take one look in those ruby eyes
And I see the light
So I raise my hand, love is my witness
And I am guilty for a lot of things I've done
But if I'm the holy daughter, you're the holy son
And my heart says love is my witness
Don't run away
Don't let 'em plant that seed in you
Emotions are deeper than the empty stares
That disapprove
Love is a diamond
At first surrounded by the coal
It takes more than words
More than words to make us whole
So I raise my hand, love is my witness
And I am guilty for a lot of things I've done
But if I'm the holy daughter, you're the holy son
And my heart says love is my witness
And if you wanna make God laugh, tell Him your plans, yeah
'Cause that won't take you to the Promised Land
So I raise my hand, love is my witness
And I am guilty for a lot of things I've done
But if I'm the holy daughter, you're the holy son
And my heart says, my heart says
Love is my witness
