Long Way From Home

Johnny Gill

Sometimes it burns like, like a fire, yeah
Love has a mind of, a mind of its own
Dont let it stop your, your desire
Baby, dont end up, end up aloneStop where you are, look to your heart
Dont be afraid, dont throw love away
Dont get burned by your heartCause youre a long, long way from home
You need a man of your own, keepin you warm
Cause youre a long, long way from home
You need to hurry back home, let me keep you warmSometimes it feels like lifes over, yeah
You know when it feels like everything's wrong
Dont let it take you, take you under
Baby, dont end up, end up aloneStop where you are, look to your heart
Dont be afraid, dont throw love away
Dont get burned by your heartCause youre a long, long way from home
You need a man of your own, keepin you warm
Cause youre a long, long way from home
You need to hurry back home, let me keep you warmI know that at times it doesnt seem fair
Those are times when you dont even care
Broken heart, shattered dreams
Without love, tell me what does it meanStop it, baby, right where you are Dont you let it go, go too far
Stop it, stop it, right where you are
Youre a long way from home, yeahCause youre a long, long way from home
You need a man of your own, keepin you warm
Cause youre a long, long way from home
You need to hurry back home, let me keep you warmStop where you are, look to your heart
Dont be afraid, dont throw love away
Dont get burned by your heartCause youre a long, long way from home
You need a man of your own, keepin you warm
Cause youre a long, long way from home
You need to hurry back home, let me keep you warmCause youre a long, long way from home
You need a man of your own, keepin you warm
Cause youre a long, long way from home
You need to hurry back home
