

Anchor

Letters to Cleo

The anchor is a kickstand
so you're going down with me
To the wrong side of the quicksand
And our flashlight destiny You can be the walker Cos I'm gonna be your wire
You can be the ugly truth Cos I'm gonna be your liar still the future lit up so bright for all to see I can't look now Cos you're all the same You're all the same to me up and away up And away The anchor is a kickstand
so you're going down with me
To the wrong side of the quicksand
And our flashlight destiny it's all wrong We tripped along so much worse off for it And only God can help the one who put the magnets in your Head up and away up and away with you If I could just get up I'd be fine
if I could just get up
