The Runaway

Something Corporate

if you ran to the end of the earth i would catch you and you would be safe if you fell down the well i would bring you a rope and take all the painall the pain, all the pain that you hide from me everyday if you're missing i will run awayi will build a path to you if you're missing i will run away because I find myself in youif i woke up alone i won't stop till I'll find you and you are with me cause by now, i know you better than you know yourself and i know what you really need what you need, or i need but either way this is where you should be here with me, or ill bleed so much that you wont believe if you're missing i will run away
i will build a path to you
if you're missing i will run away because I find myself in you you better not, you better not run you better not, you better not runif you're missing i will run away
if you're missing i will run away
i will find you
i will find you
i will find you
