Where Is The Love?

Samantha Fox

Oh, where is the love, where is the love?
Your mood all around me, you give me such a hard time
You think you might change me
But you're leaving all your love at the back of your heartSuch a hard time
You're giving me, such a hard timeOh, can't you see, won't you leave out?
You're treating me like dirt but tell me
Where is the love, won't you tell me?
Where is the love that we once knew?Where is the love, won't you tell me?
Where is the love that we once shared together?
Ooh, where is the love?How much more will you give me?
How much more can I take?
You expect me to forgive you
But it's building up inside and I'm gonna breakSuch a hard time
You're giving me, such a hard timeOh, can't you see, won't you leave it out?
You're treading on my heart
So tell me, take me
Take me away from hereOur lives are far from clear
We live in fear
Take me away
Take me away from hereTell me, tell me
Where the love is?
Tell me, tell me
Where the love is?
