

Not Dark Yet

The Zimmermen

Shadows are fallin'
And I've been here all day
It's too hot to sleep
And time is runnin' away Feel like my soul has Turned into steel
I've still got the scars
That the sun didn't heal There's not even room
Enough to be anywhere
It's not dark yet
But it's gettin' there Well my sense of humanity
Is goin' down the drain
Behind every beautiful thing
There's been some kind of pain She wrote me a letter
And she wrote it so kind
She put down in writin'
What was in her mind I just don't see
Why I should even care
It's not dark yet
But it's gettin' there And I've been to London
And I've been to gay Paris
I've followed the river
And I've got to the sea I've been down on the bottom
Of a whirlpool of lies
I ain't lookin' for nothin'
In anyone's eyes Sometimes my burden
Is more than I can bear
It's not dark yet
But it's gettin' there I was born here and I'll die here
Against my will
I know it looks like I'm movin'
But I'm standin' still Every nerve in my body
Is so naked and numb
I can't even remember what it was
I came here to get away from Don't even hear
The murmur of a prayer
It's not dark yet
But it's gettin' there
