The Ideal

The Explosion

There are no good samaritans
There are no proud Americans
This is in my ideal successI'm not impressed with the bored expressions
Of the ones who learn the lessons
I know what to expectThere are no good samaritans
There are no proud Americans
This is in my ideal successI'm not impressed with the board of directors
The state's inspectors giving them lectures
Just because you win, doesn't mean I loseHey, hey, hey, who's afraid of breaking rules?
Just because you win, doesn't mean I lose
Hey, hey, hey, and I"m not afraid of youI"m not impressed with the board of directors
The state's inspectors giving them lectures
I'm not impressed with the bored expressions
Of the ones who learn the lessons
I know what to expect
