

Ghost

Run River North

You sing your favorite songs
Walk along another bridge
Don't really care to fight
Don't see the difference Maybe you're color blind
I don't know when to stop
Blood is spilling out
Blood is all I've got You're not a ghost keeping secrets no one else can take
I hate it most, the feeling never seems to break
Can no one hear me, is anybody listening
Maybe the same face, the one you couldn't shake
You're just a snake making paths no one else can take When did you come undone
When did you take the truth
Who gave you promises
Who gave them back to you
Maybe you'll never know
I don't know when to stop Blood is spilling out
Blood is all I've got
You're just a ghost
Blood is spilling out You're not a ghost keeping secrets no one else can take
I hate it most, the feeling never seems to break
Can no one hear me, is anybody listening
Making the same face, the one you couldn't shake
You're just a snake making paths no one else can take I'm just a snake making paths no one else can take
