

Sweeter As the Days Go By

Marvin Gaye

Oh, you've got a smile like a sweet lovin' angel, oh baby
And you've got a heart that's made of pure gold, oh baby
You've given me so much that I'm grateful of Such a faithful love
And it gets sweeter as the days go by
Sweeter as the days go by Oh I'd be lost without you baby
Now, don't ever leave me
'Cause your sweet kiss turns on my sunshine, oh yeah baby (baby)
At night the stars, they wink at you
I-I-I have seen them, baby
Ah, but I guess every single star knows how sweet you are
You get sweeter as the days go by
Sweeter, honey, as the days go by (sweeter as the days go by) Yeah, (Just a little sweeter, baby)
(Just a little sweeter, baby)
(Just a little sweeter, baby)
(Just a little sweeter, baby) Now there are so many reasons for me to love you, oh, baby (baby)
And I'm so lucky to have you and that's no lie, no baby
Yes, you're a candymaker's dream come true
And darlin', sugar has nothin' on you
And you get sweeter as the days go by
Sweeter as the days go by
Honey
You're sweeter than honey
You're sweeter than sugar
