

Take It Home

The White Tie Affair

Come on baby take it home people are startin' to stare and they're turning off all of the lights We've been putting on a show all ni-i-i-ight.

Boys will be boys

Take it home, take it home
Cause I can't take anymore
it's your touch, it's your taste, it's your dress on the floor
Take it home, cause I've been waiting all night for you and this is what I'm gonna do

Ice, ice, melt your heart
Baby girl let down your guard
Rush, rush for that touch
Just one taste can't get enough (whole thing 2x)

Baby put your key in the door
Because this party's getting way too loud and the neighbors can't take anymore and they're so for you, let's give them an encore.

Boys will be boys

Take it home, take it home
Cause I can't take anymore
it's your touch, it's your taste, it's your dress on the floor
Take it home, cause I've been waiting all night for you
and this is what I'm gonna do

Ice, ice, melt your heart
Baby girl let down your guard
Just one taste can't get enough (whole thing 2x)

Get a room, and they say, what to do, them anyway over there doesn't matter cause you're here.

Ice, ice melt your heart
Baby girl let down your guard
Just one taste can't get enough (whole thing 2x)

Take it home, take it home
Cause I can't take anymore
It's your touch, it's your taste, it's your dress on the floor
Cause I've been waiting all night for you
and this is what I'm gonna do

Ice, ice melt your heart
Baby girl let down your guard
Rush, Rush for that touch

Just one taste can't get enough
Take it home, take it home
Cause I can't take anymore

[fade out]
