

Inside (Dioxyde Remix)

Endanger

Wise men say "all's fair in love and war"
They've never seen the eyes of death before
We moveand breathewe live and loveeternally

Ref.:

Inside I feel my heartbeat dying
It's time to face the end (tonight my kingdom comes)
Erase me, erase me

Wise men say "all's fair in love and war"
They've never looked into these eyes beforeand they stare

See-Part:

They say "all's fair in love and war"
They've never looked into these eyes before
We moveand breathewe live and loveeternally
