

I Stand in Awe (feat. Chris Quilala)

Jesus Culture

Open my eyes to see more of Your majesty more of Your wonder and Your worth Compel my soul to sing for all eternity lifting the praise that You deserve

I stand in awe of You, in awe of You Amazed beyond what I can say
I stand in awe of You, in awe of You
my heart, abandoned once again
I stand in awe of You

So let Your will resound in every heart that's bowed with every breath in every phrase It's in the angels' sound the universe is loud full of Your glory and Your grace

I stand in awe of You, in awe of You
Amazed beyond what I can say
my heart, abandoned once again Abandoned to You, amazed by who You are amazed by all You are

Let it rise, let it rise
we cannot contain this place inside
Let it rise, let it rise
let the sound of heaven multiply oh!

I stand in awe of You, in awe of You
Amazed beyond what I can say
my heart, abandoned once again
Abandoned to You, amazed by who You are amazed by all You are

We stand in awe of You, in awe of You amazed beyond what we can say
I stand in awe of You, in awe of You
my heart abandoned once again
