She Likes the Attention

Caleb

She likes the attention,
Not to mention how the boys line up
But she cant stop,
Turning it on and on and onShe could always see through my hand
Never was a fool for my master plan, though I grew tired of the games
I would wait around for my luck to change,Does she not make my heartbeat a little faster
Doesn't she move me like a natural disasterShe likes the attention,
Not to mention how the boys line up,
But she cant stop,
Turning it on and on and onShe was always leading me on,
and I would hang around till the break of dawn
Though I always fell for the bait
I was just a pawn to manipulateDoes she not make my heart beat a little faster
Doesn't she move me like a natural disasterShe likes the attention,
Not to mention how the boys line up,
But she cant stop,
Turning it on and on and onTurning it on, turning it on and on and on Turning it on, she's turning it on and on and onDoes she not make my heart beat a little faster
Doesn't she move me like a natural disasterShe likes the attention,
Not to mention how the boys line up,
But she cant stop,
Turning it on and on and on (X2)Turning it on, turning it on and on and on Turning it on, turning it on and on and on (FADEOUT)
