

Knee Deep At The NPL

Camera Obscura

We went out dancing it was time we had fun
We didn't leave 'til three I know we're not the only one's
When we got outside the snow had started to fall
I made a ball I threw it at Gavin because he's tall
So now we have this snow up to our knees
A Walking winterland is always bound to please
I know it's true to say my smile's been weak
I wonder if you know by now I've fallen deep I can hear you calling to me in the morning
How can I be falling in love with you You can offer me a penny for my thoughts
They're not worth a damn they're not worth a lot
I've been getting loose with my tongue and free with my hands
How can I expect you to understand who I am? I can hear you calling to me in the morning
How can I be falling in love with you
