A Showman's Life

Gary Allan

A showman's life,

Is a smokey bar,

And the fevered chase,

Of a tiny star,

It's a hotel room,

And a lonely wife,

From what I've seen,

Of a showman's lifeNobody told me about this part,

They told me all about the pretty girls,

And the wine,

And the money,

And the good times,

There's no mention of,

All the wear and tear,

On an old honky tonker's heart,

Well I might of known it,

But nobody told me about this partA boy will dream,

As children do,

Of a great white way,

Until the dream comes true,

And a phony smile,

In a colored light,

Is all there is,

To a showman's life,

Nobody told me about this partNobody told me about this part,

They told me all about the pretty girls,

And the wine,

And the money,

And the good times,

There's no mention of,

All the wear and tear.

On an old honky tonker's heart,

Well I might of known it,

But nobody told me about this partBut nobody told me about this partNobody told me about this part,

They told me all about the pretty girls,

And the wine,

And the money,

And the good times,

There's no mention of,

All the wear and tear,
On an old honky tonker's heart,
Well I might of known it,
But nobody told me about this partWell I might of known it,
But nobody told me about this part
