If You Wanna

Justin Guarini

It's not what you do, it's what you say
I heard things about you around the way
I don't know if it's true, I'm just sayin'
Words have a strang way of haunting youBut I've been feelin' low and wishin' I
I could put my trust in you, everyone's tryin' to make it hard to do
Then I want to believe you when you say
Say they got it in for you, tell me what to do 'causeI don't know, if you wanna be, if you wanna be with me
Baby, all I need if you wanna be with me, honesty
No more lies, if you wanna be, if you wanna be with me
Next time please think twice, wanna wanna
If you wanna be with me, yeah yeahWhen I hold you tight through the night
You feel so good inside, still somethin' just ain't right
My boys still are tellin' me you got another life
One that you keep from me and that ain't rightIf you love my time, it's in my eyes
'Cause I'm all about you babe, I'm all about you, baby
And if you can't say those things too I can
I can do without you, baby, I'll find another ladyI don't know, if you wanna be, if you wanna be with me
All I need, all I need, honesty
No more lies, no more lies, if you wanna be with me
Got those dirty eyes, please think twice
Wanna, wanna, if you wanna be with me, yeah, yeahI can see you're lyin'
To my face, babe, baby, I've been tryin'
Understand, what's really goin' on
Baby girl, just make up your mindI don't know, if you wanna be, if you wanna be with me
All I need, honesty
Baby, no more lies if you wanna, if you wanna be with me
Please think twice, baby girl, I give you my lifeI don't know, if you wanna, if you wanna be with me
All I need, if you wanna be with me, honesty
No more lies, don't know why you're makin' me cry
I can't believe you, wanna wanna wanna wanna, yeah yeahAll about you, babe, all about you, babe
It's not what you do, all about you, babe
What's that strange way I'm flirtin' you
Got those dirty eyes, oh, wanna wanna
I don't know
