

Rescue Me

Inhabited

Each step I take from You I see who I really am
I know the good in me is only Your reflection
I look behind me and I see You no where in sight

I look down, my hands are bound, I can't even praise You and I'm crying out to You so come and rescue me
I'm here on bended knee and I'm crying out to You

 All I really, really want is to be free

 So take my hand here I am, oh come and free me

Take my hand here I am, oh come and rescue me I've drifted so far, can't even see the shore
I've been lost in the waves but haven't been fighting

 I'm sinking fast, oh is there an end to this

I can't breathe I'm in so deep but You can save me I'm crying out to You so come and rescue me
I'm here on bended knee and I'm crying out to You

 All I really, really want is to be free

 So take my hand, here I am, oh come and free me

Take my hand, here I am, oh come and rescue me I'm drowning in my decisions
 And I'm frustrated and I'm

 I'm disappointed

It's my world You see and I want out I'm crying

I'm here on bended knee and I'm crying out to You

 All I really, really want is to be free

 So take my hand, here I am, oh, come and free me

Take my hand, here I am, oh, come and rescue me I'm here on bended knee and I'm crying out to You

 I'm crying out to You

 Out to You, out to You

 Out to You, out to You

 Out to You, out to You
