Building a Ladder

Hiatus Kaiyote

Free range of the mind
Maps the fire coasting the sideline
Contact with an ease
Tarnish point of the supreme
Is it the strength of your fearless over throwing your pain
You'll see new heights to be reaching
Is it today that you will find your new release?
And in your wake ripples your sweet fateFree range of the mind
Maps the fire coasting the sideline
Contact with an ease
Tarnish point of the supreme
Is it the strength of your fearless over throwing your pain
You'll see new heights to be reaching
Is it today that you will find a new release?
And in your wake ripples your sweet fateIn the death of the grip of the mask
That's covering your simple love for the part
Of your soul so warm and vast
And I can hear the hinges struggle to last rusting
Feel my feathers rush from the pastBuilding a ladder of love to you
And I hope that love you build one too
Building a ladder of love to you
And I hope that love you build one too
And then we fly away, ohBuilding a ladder of love to you
And I hope that love you build one too
Building a ladder of love to you
And I hope that love you build one too
And then we fly away, ohHand in hand we fly away
Hand in hand
Hand in hand we fly away
