

Sacrifice

Motörhead

Why do they not believe?
I have not lied, even for this
Now no one can conceive
The lie becomes the loving kiss But I would not Fall in love like this
I would not
Fall in love like this The woman stitches the shrouds
The children murder all the world
If only you believe
Then only you will die How can you not
See the stars in your eyes?
How can you not
See the stars in your eyes? Sacrifice, sacrifice, sacrifice, sacrifice
Sacrifice, pay the price, blood like ice, sacrifice The pain is on you now
Do not consider flight for gain
In you the poison breeds
Crawling with the mark of Cain And no one shall Set you free again
And no one shall
Set you free again Sacrifice, sacrifice, sacrifice, sacrifice
Sacrifice, sacrifice, sacrifice, sacrifice
