DANCE CRAZE

BOÏ†WY

I'm in the bar when I should be in front of you
I play the pinball when I really should be skanking
It doesn't matter how many times you ask me up, I appreciate it
But it's complicated, I just can't dance, baby, I just can't loose myselfI've got an image and I have to live up on to the latest trend
So nowadays I'm macho and have you ever seen a macho
Shake or twist his butt, I know your not, so I'm not lickin' in
On the spot, 'cause I can't dance, baby, I just can't get in tranceSomeone told me, bad boys don't know why
They're not dancing, someone told me what they say
Is their only way to slip away, they dont know how to dance away
Wanna slip away, they dont know how to dance away
