

Child I Can See Ya

Katie Herzig

Don't cry, child I can see ya
You're too scared to come home
Just leave all of your worries
Out there where they belong
What dream keeps you running
From New York to LA?
You must be oh so hungry
For some place you can stay
Oh I can see ya
You're almost there
Oh I can see ya
You're almost there
And I hope that you know I love you
Even when you are gone
And I hope someday you'll see that
All these roads lead to one
Oh I can see ya
You're almost there
Oh I can see ya
You're almost there
You're almost there
I live in the valleys
I live under your bed
I dwell in the silence that you keep from your head
Oh I can see ya
You're almost there
Oh I can see ya
You're almost there
