Next Time Around

TGT

I know I fucked her
But I can't do this without you
Way can be just'damn
Ooh, she's packing everything in her room
I'm going crazy like ooh, ooh
I knew that this day will come soon but I'm feeling like
Ooh, ooh
This can make a grow man cry and 'like
Ooh, ooh
It may hurt but it's still not enough to give up
On everything, on everything
I still try to buy you a house and a ring
On everything baby I'mma change
I'mma give you reason when you come back baby it won't be the same
Now be ready for next time around
Now be ready for next time around
Cuz right now it feels like damn
Fells like the Sun lost the fight with the rain
I know right now it's over
Now be ready for next time around
Ooh, ooh, ooh
I gonna need the 'cuz I'm feeling like
Tell me how that ' and now I'm feeling like
Baby girl give me sound, a women how give you sound
I guess she's no longer mine but I'mm give her sometimes
On everything, on everything
I still try to buy you a house and a ring
On everything baby I'mma change
I'mma give you reason when you come back baby it won't be the same
Now be ready for next time around
Now be ready for next time around
Cuz right now it feels like damn
Fells like the Sun lost the fight with the rain
I know right now it's over
Now be ready for next time around
A real man miss when he '.
A real man gonna pick up the phone saying 'Please come home I can't love another'
On everything, on everything
I still try to buy you a house and a ring

On everything baby I'mma change
I'mma give you reason when you come back baby it won't be the same
Now be ready for next time around
Now be ready for next time around (I'mma prepare)
Cuz right now it feels like damn
Fells like the Sun lost the fight with the rain
I know right now it's over
Now be ready for next time around
Ooh, yeah, ooh
I'mma be prepare
