Slow Dancing

U2

My love is cruel as the night
She steals the sun and shuts out the light
All of my colors turn to blue
Win or lose[Incomprehensible] slow dancing
Slow dancing
Does it slow dancingScarlet eyes and a see-through heart
I saw it coming right from the start
She picked me up but had me down on my knees
Just beggin' her pleaseTake me slow dancing
Slow dancing, slow dancing
All night longI don't know why a man
Search for himself in his woman's eyes
No, I don't know why a man
Sees the truth but needs the liesMy love is restless as the wind
She moves like a shadow across my skin
She left with my conscience and I don't want it back
It just gets in the wayWanna go slow dancing
Slow dancing, slow
Slow dancing, slow dancing, slow
Slow dancing, slow dancing, slow
