Kaskade/Mindy Gledhill

Ah ahh ahh

Haa haa haa

Naa niiii

I aint gunna lie you were number 1 then but i dont feel the same no more i just want you as a friend im done trying to pretend they say good things dont last forever some day they gotta end matter of fact im doing you a favour Had enough of fucking girls coming back to you later im sick of having to delete everything in my pager baby i aint Britney but im dropping up ya rader
She wonder why i never pick up my phone cuz all im tryin to do is keep it on the low i think i need to let her know before she find out on her own either way im gunna break her heart when i tell her go

All my people round the world if you like somebody else

How do you find the words to say its over

Ive been wanting to tell you but i dont know how to tell you

How do you find the words to tell them its over

Baby its killing me this just isnt right for me

I think i like somebody else

Haaa haa haa x3

Niii

I aint gunna lie you were number one then but it just aint the same anymore your out of my top 10 this aint good for your health if only you knew that everytime im fucking you i think of somebody else i knew that one of us were gunna get hurt from the get go i told you i told i said so i hate having to fake the feeling everytime that we get low it i think its better for the both of us if we let go

She wonders why i'm never round these days but as soon i touch base she'll be all up in my face its the same old shit she never gives me any space how do i tell her someones taking her place

All my people round the world if you like somebody else

How do you find the words to say its over

Ive been wanting to tell you but i dont know how to tell you

How do you find the words to tell them its over

Baby its killing me this just isnt right for me

I think i like somebody else

Why should i feel guilty

Its plain to see i aint being myself

Is it wrong i want it from somewhere else

I been holding out for sooo long.

Now Why do i feel guilty

Its plain to see i aint being myself

Is it wrong i want it from somewhere else.

I been holding out for sooooo long

Ooohhh wwooo oohhwwoo
Cant take no more
I wont pretend another day
I think its time for me to say exactly how i feel
cant take no more
I just ain't happy any more
I just keep lying to myself
How do you find the words to say its over
I been wanting to tell you but i dont know how to tell you
How do you find the words to tell them its over
Baby it's killing me this just isnt right for me
I think i like somebody else
Why should i feel guilty
Its plain to see i aint being myself
Is it wrong i want it from somewhere else
I been holding out for sooo long.
Now Why do i feel guilty
Its plain to see i aint being myself
Is it wrong i want it from somewhere else.
I been holding out for soooo long
Ha haaa ha haaa
Ha haaaa
Na Naniiii
Ha Haaa Ha haaa
Ha haaaaaaa
