

Seemingly Endless Time (Live @ Rock Hard 2007)

Death Angel

Drifting on an endless sea
On our way to nowhere
Oblivious to our destiny
Slowly drifting on and on and onWander far away, too far
Trapped in a timeless void
Changing with the shifting wind
Never can see an endIt's a real vague story
Impossible to perceive
A seemingly endless timePassing through eternity
Still devoid of meaning
Useless to inquire upon
The fate that we shall suffer on
