

Private Hell (feat. Green Day)

Iggy Pop

I have a private hell
Of excellent quality
I've dwelt there for years
Playing with my fears It's tasteful, luxurious,
And full of sexuality
And though they are tears
I control them with my gears Well all in all,
I must tell you,
Well I must tell you,
I'm so proud of my private hell Anger and greed brew
And then they stamped
Till I can transmute
Them into more loot It's tasteful, luxurious,
And full of sexuality
And though they are tears
I control them with my gears Well all in all,
I must tell you,
Well I must tell you,
I'm so proud of my private hell Well all in all,
I must tell you,
Well I must tell you,
I'm so proud of my private hell
