Mark IV

Ashtar Command

When I was a young boy I was told I could become anything that I wanted to be Followed all the paths they laid before me now Iâ€™ve learned Never lead where I thought they would lead

You can hold me down but you canâ€™t break me
You may think you can but you canâ€™t shake me
You may trust your god but he wonâ€™t save me
Donâ€™t think you can take anything from me

Now that I am grown Do I like what Iâ€™ve become? Is it all that I thought it would beâ€¦?
Back where it began and anything has come and gone I will be what I wanted to be

You can hold me down but you canâ€™t break me
You may think you can but you canâ€™t shake me
You may trust your god but he wonâ€™t save me
Donâ€™t think you can take anything from me

You can hold me down but you canâ€™t break me
You may think you can but you canâ€™t shake me
You may trust your god but he wonâ€™t save me
Donâ€™t think you can take anything from me
