

When We Were Young (Acoustic Bonus Track)

The Summer Set

Do you remember?
Back when, we fell in love in your best friends basement
Spun the bottle and hoped it would land on you
Thought we were cool, listening to Zeppelin
Making out on the stairway to heaven
Nowhere to go, so we slept out on the roof But now, we hardly even speak, at all
Looking back, how did we get away? I never thought that we'd surrender
When i was yours and you were mine
Never regret, no, we learned how to love
When we were young When we were young Snuck out in your daddy's ride at the drive in, making love for the first time
Forget the silver screen, it's a wonderful life But now, we hardly even speak, at all
Looking back, how did we get away? I never thought that we'd surrender
When i was yours and you were mine
Never regret, no, we learned how to love
When we were young and still together
No, there was nothing left to prove
Never regret no, we learned how to love When we were young and reckless Dumb and fearless
Fighting in the streets
Will you remember me? Young forever, back then Never knew the first love's the hardest I never thought that we'd surrender
When i was yours and you were mine
Never regret, no, we learned how to love
When we were young and still together
No, there was nothing left to prove
Never regret, no we learned how to love
When we were young When we were young.
When we were young.
When we were young.
