

Eternal War

Bolt Thrower

Through man's existence, from the start of time
The fight for survival is our only crime
Those in power, rotten to the core
The ongoing battle of the eternal war
What are you fighting for? Is it worth dying for?
You're held down by your chains, there's no-one but you to blame
Fighting, destroying, following blind
Crushing, corrupting, enslaving mankind
What's now left - you can't believe Oppression those in power, send to deceive
Slave to hatred, peace they deplore
Driven by despair, eternal war
