

Matrimony

The Avett Brothers

things didn't work out like they should far from what i thought they would do you still want my hand do you think i'm still your man i'll change everything i can

holy plans and holy gifts holy shit what did we get said you got plans of your own you go to work and i'll stay home

my dog's loud and my dog's wild we're to young to have a child can you keep the dog next week i'll be gone the next three

matrimony

i aint through i aint walkin out leavin' aint what i'm about you may scream and i may shout but baby i love you
