

Midnight Rodeo

Walt Gabbard

Me and my baby had the truck loaded down.

I just hit the outskirts of town

When that sheriffâ€™s blue lights filled up my mirrors, my vision wasnâ€™t all that clear.

So I kicked it down a gear and I hit a back road, hid in the woods - watched him drive by real slow.

Couldnâ€™t be late for the show had to catch that midnight rodeo, where the girl showed so much skin.

Itâ€™s damned near the eighth that weâ€™ve sinned.

That firelight sets the mood of the night if itâ€™s wrong man I donâ€™t wanna be right.

Then she gives me that look I know itâ€™s time to go, gonna end this night with a midnight rodeo.

Bonfire sparklinâ€™ in my ladies eyes, that Martin was strumminâ€™ those lullabies.

She danced through the fast and singed through the slow the scene was set for that midnight rodeo.

So I took her by the hand and we headed for my old boat I canâ€™t believe that the damn thing still floats, started with a choke and a little bit of smoke now itâ€™s time for that midnight rodeo.

Where the girl shows so much skin, itâ€™s damned near the eighth that weâ€™ve sinned. That firelight sets the mood the night, if itâ€™s wrong man I donâ€™t wanna be right.

Then she gives me that look and I know itâ€™s time to go, gonna end this night with a midnight rodeo.

I turned that boat up the river. Whispered in her ear about the love I could give her. She said, â€•boy thereâ€™s something about me you need to know this ainâ€™t my first - this ainâ€™t my first midnight rodeo.â€•

Well the girl showed so much skin, itâ€™s damned near the eighth that weâ€™ve sinned.

That firelight sets the mood of the night if its wrong man I donâ€™t wanna be right , I donâ€™t wanna be right.

Then she gives me that look I know itâ€™s time to go, Iâ€™m gonna end this night with a midnight rodeo.

MIDNIGHT RODEO
ITâ€™S IN THE BLOOD
WALT GABBARD
ZINK CALLS
Copyright Â© 2013

Lyrics Submitted by Peyton Smith

Lyrics provided by
<https://damnlyrics.com/>