

Tigers and Sharks

You Me At Six

All those dirty words that you said, did you mean them? Did you now?

You're biting at the hand that feeds you like a stray for some scraps

And everybody you once knew has turned their backs

And everyone you once loved has sold you out And everyone I know, they faked it from the word go

And I need to know why

That everyone I love has been swimming with the sharks

And I don't know why Does defeat leave a taste in your mouth

One that you could live without?

And everyone that you once knew has turned their backs

And everyone that you once loved has sold you out And everyone I know, they faked it from the word go

And I need to know why

That everyone I love has been swimming with the sharks

And I don't know why Why do you try to let go of someone that you love? So how does it feel? How does it feel?

How do you? How do you?

So does it feel? How does it feel?

How do you? How do you?

How does it feel? How does it feel to you, to you?
