Indigo

PollyAnna

I got pockets full of gold
It has no worth for all they know
But it doesn't feel as cold
They are coins of indigoWith my spirit in my bag
I always know which way to go
And I'm never looking back
I'm a kid of indigo
All I know is all I ownWe're alone and that's alright
All alone, so far from home
We're alone, and that's alright
We are kids of indigo
We got no place else to go
All we know is all we ownSometimes everything is bliss
I lost my worries long ago
Cause I know there's more than this
Up the skies of indigo
All I know is all I own
