

Only One and Only (Alternate Version)

Gillian Welch

There's a hundred bluebirds
Up above the clouds
Putting all the color in the sky
And twice as many tear drops there to wash it down
Every one's another lullabyBut there's only one and only
Who could go and leave me lonelyThere's a world of trouble
Trying to take its turn
I can hear it shaking underground
And half a dozen lessons
I might never learn
Not until them troubles come aroundBut there's only one and only
Who could go and leave me lonelyThere's a mile of blacktop
Where the road begins
It takes a time or two to recognize Growing at the roadside
Scattered by the wind
Are everybody's unsaid sad goodbyesBut there's only one and only
Who could go and leave me lonelyYou're the only one and only
Why'd you go and leave me lonely
