This Is Love

Self

Come away with me, it's a surprise
Everything I see through your eyes
Is just as lovely as the day I first fell for youAnd you can count on me
For each and every little thing
Hey love, you can hold me and mold me
But I'll still be the sameOn a distant sea far away from
The unimportant things, just the shoreline
And this love we feel
I can prove it
Can you prove it to me?And I can count on you
For each and every thing that you do
Hey love, you can shake me or break me
But I'll always be true
