Uniontown

Good Riddance

When lies serve as substitution
A new twist on an old solution
No cause no choice
They took your freedom awayThe new rights gotta keep you guessing
A Quick close with a signed confession
No rights this fight
Is how you're gonna payA child's tear froma broken heart
Another family's ripped apart
And the streets are empty
Down in Uniontown
Just don't let them catch you out at nightNobody gets to have it all
The lucky ones only take the fall
It's a game and they picked your name
And now you've been hadYou're just a player in a house of cards
Pleading guilty to a lesser charge
You're no good to anyone
When you're doing timeIt's hard enough to stay alive
Eighteen to twenty five
Another town's locked into a slow decay
With all it's young men they're locked away

Lyrics provided by https://damnlyrics.com/