Manipulate

Freezepop

you tell just half the truth you're pulling strings and pushing buttons wheels are turning in your head i know that you are up to something in your mind a plan is hatching behind your innocent disguise you know i'm onto you so you won't look me in the eyesyou are a mastermind - manipulate it's all by your design - manipulate you think that i am blind - manipulate but i'm not far behindyou know just what you want you know just how to get it you are far too devious you're clever though, i must admit it you've got that killer instinct you do what must be done you've got your own agenda you're looking out for number oneyou are a mastermind - manipulate
it's all by your design - manipulate
but i'm not far behindi'm not perfect, i've done it too but not nearly as much as you as much as youyou are a mastermind - manipulate
but i'm not far behind
